For Material Subject to U.S. Copyright Law

(a) Special regulations for readers in the U.S.A.
This journal has been registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 21 Congress Street, Salem, MA 01970, U.S.A. Consent is given for copying of articles for personal use, or for the personal use of specific clients. This consent is given on the condition that the copier pays through the Center the per-copy fee stated in the code on the first page of each article for copying beyond that permitted by Sections 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law. If no code appears in an article, the author has not given broad consent to copy and permission to copy must be obtained directly from the author. All articles published prior to 1982 may be copied for a per-copy fee of U.S. $2.50, also payable through the Center. This consent does not extend to other kinds of copying, such as for general distribution, resale, advertising and promotion purposes or for creating new collective works. Special written permission must be obtained from the publisher for such copying.

(b) Special regulations for authors in the U.S.A.
Upon acceptance of an article by the journal, the author(s) will be asked to transfer copyright of the article to the publisher. This transfer will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information under the U.S. Copyright Law.
